

Transmission Function Employee Job Descriptions
December 3, 2008
1. p. 1 of 3

Commercial Manager – GC Gas & Gas Liquids

Responsible for all commercial activities within the asset management team, including revenue generation, scheduling, gain/loss reconciliation and volumetric data management.

Commercial Rep

Coordinates new business opportunities on pipeline. Acts in project manager role to facilitate new interconnections with producers and pipelines. Negotiates OBAs and other interconnection agreements.

Customer Service Rep

Manages daily shipper nominations and confirmations. Provides Gas Control daily orders for gas flows.

Project Coordinator

Coordinates new business opportunities on pipeline. Acts in project manager role to facilitate new interconnections with producers and pipelines. Negotiates OBAs and other interconnection agreements.

Volume Analyst

Provides monthly allocations of producer receipts, shipper nominations and interconnect delivery quantities. Files state and federal reports as required.

Field Team Leader

Supervises field employees providing measurement, administrative, maintenance and other operations support to pipeline system as required. Manages small capital or major maintenance projects as required.

Maintenance Coordinator

Champions preventative maintenance best practices. Subject matter expert on SAP-PM maintenance management system. Analyzes data and makes recommendations on what action should be taken to prevent failures.

Corrosion Protection Specialist

Subject matter expert on corrosion protection. Inspects and evaluates the conditions of coating systems on existing or new pipe and equipment and ensures necessary coating repairs are made. Performs annual surveys of corrosion management systems, equipment and facilities.

I & E Specialist

Performs routine troubleshooting and I&E maintenance repairs on assigned pipeline system equipment and facilities and routine I&E diagnostic and repair

Transmission Function Employee Job Descriptions
December 3, 2008
1. p. 2 of 3

work on basic instrumentation and low voltage systems. Obtains all necessary licenses and certificates pertaining to work performed.

Mechanic

Performs routine troubleshooting and maintenance repairs on assigned pipeline system equipment and facilities including the collection and interpretation of IMI data. Performs a variety of semi-skilled mechanical work including installing, disassembling/assembling, inspecting, repairing, and replacing defective parts on a variety of piping and pipeline equipment and facilities.

Pipeline Mechanic

Performs routine troubleshooting and maintenance repairs on assigned pipeline system equipment and facilities including the collection and interpretation of IMI data. Performs a variety of semi-skilled mechanical work including installing, disassembling/assembling, inspecting, repairing, and replacing defective parts on a variety of piping and pipeline equipment and facilities.

Operations Supervisor

Supervisory responsibility over Pipeline Operator and Pipeliner positions.

Operator – Sr.

Operates specific pipeline systems and/or facilities (i.e. monitoring pressures, temperatures and flow rates, and making appropriate operational changes). Evaluates alarm conditions as they occur and determine the proper course of action to correct the alarm condition.

Pipeline Operator

Operates specific pipeline systems and/or facilities (i.e. monitoring pressures, temperatures and flow rates, and making appropriate operational changes). Evaluates alarm conditions as they occur and determine the proper course of action to correct the alarm condition.

Pipeline Trainee

Assists in a variety of mechanical, technical, and electrical tasks as required; operates and services motor vehicles, assists with operating skills such as maintaining equipment, changing orifice plates, meter proving, and monitoring systems, etc.

Pipeliner

Visually inspects the condition of equipment and pipelines to ensure that equipment is running within design limits and is properly maintained. Operates and maintains shop equipment such as grinders, drill presses, drills, saws, arc welders, cutting torches and hand tools. Performs limited carpentry, masonry, painting and insulating work.

Transmission Function Employee Job Descriptions
December 3, 2008
1. p. 3 of 3

PIM Project Manager

Manages pipeline integrity assessment and repair projects.

Construction Representative

Supervises field execution of integrity assessment and repair projects.

Console Supervisor Gas & Gas Liquids

Supervisory responsibility over controller positions.

Controller

Manages physical gas flow per gas orders. Via SCADA system monitors system's pressures and line balance to maintain operations within safe limits. Responds as appropriate to abnormal and emergency conditions.

Product Quality & Measurement Team Leader

Supervisory responsibilities over Measurement Coordinator, Measurement Specialist and Product Quality Specialist positions. Provides statistical analysis of trends to resolve measurement issues.

Measurement Coord.-Gas

Provides subject matter expertise in gas measurement, equipment and electronic flow computers. Provides support to field measurement technicians.

Measurement Specialist

Provides subject matter expertise in gas measurement, equipment and electronic flow computers. Provides support to field measurement technicians.